

THE COMMODORE JAMES COULL MEMORIAL AWARD 2018

Awarded by the Royal Fleet Auxiliary Association
To

First Officer (X)
JAMIE EDWARD FINLAY
RFA

FOR OUTSTANDING & MERITORIOUS SERVICE

.....
Captain Ray Bennett
Chairman RFA Association

THE COMMODORE JAMES COULL AWARD

This award is made annually by the Trustees of the RFA Association to serving members of the RFA, below the rank of Chief Officer in recognition of outstanding and meritorious service to the RFA and in memory of the highly respected James Coull who served as Commodore of the RFA from 1983 – 1985.

After careful consideration, the Trustees of the RFA Association have concluded that

FIRST OFFICER (X) JAMIE EDWARD FINLAY RFA

fulfils all the necessary criteria for the 2018 award for his outstanding performance, in RFA Mounts Bay, during Humanitarian Assistance and Disaster Relief Operations in the British Overseas Territories of Anguilla, the British Virgin Islands, the Turks Caicos Islands and the independent island of Dominica after they suffered unprecedented damage post hurricanes IRMA and MARIA.